Florence Kate Tagg

First Child Born To
James and Kate Tagg
Born Saturday
January 12, 1889
In Bristol, Gloucester,
England

Mom used to call her Polly. I called her Aunt Toe. She had long hair all the way down to her waist. She used to brush and comb it at night and wrap it up into a bun.

As I brush my hair at night I think of her and how she would tip her head down and brush all the way out to the ends which was no small task. She played the violin and when she died Aunt Jean and Uncle Steve helped take care of her things and Eileen got the violin and lovingly placed it above the fireplace. Jane, Eileen's daughter, is in possession of it now along with some sheet music that belonged to her.

She was the first Tagg child to leave England and come to the United States.
