Pictures of Churches in Denmark

What is Kirker i Danmark?

Kirker I Danmark means Churches in Denmark. This site has pictures of the various parish churches in Denmark. You may search either by the Kirker (churches), Sogne (parishes), Herred (subdivision of Amt), Amter (counties), Provsti (deanery), or Stift (diocese). Another advantage of this site is that if you use the Amt (County), a map of that county showing the parishes is appears and you can click on the parish name to see that church. These maps are particularly helpful if you are want to see the surrounding parishes because you must do an area search or a record mentions that one of the people was from another parish, you are able to see the proximity to the current parish.

- Select the method you wish to use to search – Kirker, Sogne, Herreder, Amter, Provsti, or Stift using the choices right under the title. (The most common searches would be Kirker, Sogne or Amter because this is the information that we have easily available; therefor, only these three will be covered.)

The Church Picture Page

Once you have gotten to the Church picture page, you will see the following message at the top of the page:

Klik på billedet for at se stor udgave - Klik på sogn, herred eller amt over billedet for at se andre billeder derfra
Klik på kirkens navn for at komme til side med link til yderligere info om kirken og sognet.

Translation:

Click on the picture to see a bigger image - Click on parish, herred or amt above the picture to see other pictures there from. (Clicking on the Amt would show pictures of all churches in the Amt (county)) Click on the church's name to come to the page with links to further information on the church and the parish. NOTE: One such link took me to a beautiful set of pictures of the painting on the domed ceiling of the church!

Now, most do not have links and many of the links that are given will take you to pages that are only in Danish, you may still find more pictures as in the example given above. Don't hesitate to look; you don't know what you will find!
